One year SDGs – The business contribution

Berne, 3 October 2016

The 2030 Agenda

Swiss Contribution

- The Federal Council advocates the implementation of the 2030 Agenda on the national and the international level.
- The 2030 Agenda shall become an important guideline for Switzerland.
- Switzerland will participate in the international reporting mechanism.

Initial Steps for Switzerland's Implementation of the 2030 Agenda

Decision of the Swiss Federal Council on 18 December 2015:

- The Federal Administration was tasked with making an assessment on the implementation of the SDGs. Key element: Identifying areas where action is needed and providing recommendations on closing the gaps.
- Definition of the internal structure and the allocation of responsibilities within the Federal Administration.
- Expansion of the sustainable monitoring system MONET to ensure adequate monitoring and reporting.
- Clarifying the modalities for stakeholder participation in consultations and in implementation partnerships.
- Preparation of the first substantive report to the HLPF on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda in 2018.

Assessment: Where are we today? What are the gaps to close?

From Assessment to Action

Policy-Cycle – First Considerations

Implementation of the 2030 Agenda is a challenge for the society as a whole

How Companies Can Get Involved and Contribute

- Identify and implement own contributions. Refer own activities to the SDGs.
- Report and communicate own contributions.
 - Sustainability reporting (with reference to SDGs)
 - Future public Swiss SDG-Report (measures, initiatives).
- Active role in exchange (knowledge and good practice) and networking activities (Dialog 2030, platforms of other institutions).
- Co-operations (with other companies and public sector) in order to foster implementation.
- Interact with federal activities via institutional partners such as associations or NGOs.
